

Sunday Herald Sun

10 February 2008

Page 40

Family paddle

Looking for a kayak that will suit the whole family? The Emotion Charger is a small, stable craft ideal for surf, bays, lakes, rivers and streams. The sit-on kayak is comfortable for adults and children, and designed for beginners and intermediate paddlers. An optional backrest is available for extra comfort.

Rrp: $799

Where: Anaconda stores in Bayswater (87204000) and Geelong (52440117).

Snug as a bub

Take some of the stress out of long car trips with babies with a Babymoov neck cushion. It's cute, cuddly and cradles the neck, keeping baby snug to help them sleep comfortably on long journeys. Available in a lion or elephant design.

Rrp: $28.95

Where: Baby Bunting stores and selected baby shops.

More: www.roseandlilly.com.au

Fridge unplugged

First came the phone, then the computer. Now fridges have become the latest gadgets to go unplugged. Designed specifically for Australian conditions, Waeco's CoolFreeze Unplugged fridge/freezer can provide up to 17 hours of refrigeration from a single charge.

A new, energy-efficient, built-in battery and cooling system does away with the leads and bits and pieces associated with portable fridges.

Rrp: $1199

Where: Anaconda stores in Bayswater (87204000) and Geelong (52440117)

Lapping it up

Being in the doghouse looks downright comfortable in a Lil Buddy Pet Transporter, which was designed with safety in mind. Queensland's RSPCA has endorsed Supercheap Auto's new pet travel range, which includes a travel harness and other safety products.

Rrp: $19.99

Where: Supercheap Auto stores
More: www.supercheapauto.com

