WHEN IN DROUGHT

With water restrictions a fact of life in Australia now,

Ecowash

Mobile – a waterless mobile car-wash and polish service – is your best bet for keeping your beloved car clean. The company is serious about helping the environment: every wash saves 180 litres of water and uses biodegradable products. Zipping around most metropolitan areas (Darwin was being confirmed at press time), Ecowash is only a phone call away (1800 ECOWASH). Or book a wash online at www.ecowash.com.au; these guys will definitely clean up your act.
